We're back with a quick roundup to help you protect what matters and get more out of your policy, while saving as much as possible. Here's what to know this month.

IN THIS EMAIL:

- Is your policy hurricane-ready? What's covered vs. what's not
- Summer grilling and fire safety must-knows
- Tips for avoiding car theft
- Coverage for the things you value most

With hurricane season officially here, now's the time to review your insurance policy, understand your coverage, and make sure your home and car are fully protected. Don't wait until a storm is on the radar to find out what your insurance does or doesn't cover.

Here's a quick breakdown:

- Home Insurance may cover wind damage, but flood protection often requires a separate policy.

- Auto Insurance generally includes storm-related damage if you have comprehensive coverage.

Every policy is different. A quick chat with an Estrella agent can help you understand where you're protected, and where you may want to add coverage.

Our expert agents are here to help you prepare before the next storm hits. We'll walk you through your policy, so you're not caught off guard down the line.

Need a quick Hurricane Prep checklist?

- ✓ Review your policy for storm and flood coverage.
- ✓ Create an emergency kit with essentials like food, water, and batteries.
- ✓ Document valuables with photos or videos in case you need to file a claim.
- ✓ Ask about adding flood insurance. It's not always included in standard policies.

Summertime grilling is one of the season's best traditions, but it can quickly turn dangerous without the right precautions. Each year, outdoor grills are the cause of thousands of house fires across the U.S.

Follow these tips for safety:

- Never leave a lit grill unattended.
- Keep your grill at least 10 feet from your home or structure.
- Check propane hoses and connections for leaks before use.
- Clean grease buildup regularly.

Accidents can happen even when you're careful. That's why homeowners and renters insurance from Estrella can help protect you from fire-related claims and damage.

Summer means more travel and more opportunities for car theft. Whether you're road-tripping or just out running errands, make sure your vehicle is protected.

Here's how to reduce your risk:

- Always park in well-lit, busy areas.
- Use a steering wheel lock or anti-theft device.
- Keep valuables out of sight or locked in the trunk.
- Never leave keys or spare fobs inside your vehicle.

If the unexpected happens, comprehensive auto insurance can help cover theft or damage to your car. Talk to your Estrella agent today to make sure you're fully protected.
